

2019 Camp Impact: Amazing Adventures

Synopsis & Weekly Objectives

Students will explore the world from land to sea, and all the fun and knowledge it has to offer. Each week students will learn character traits, and participate in activities that correlate with the weekly theme. Each week students will work according to their individual plans in literacy, performing arts, creative arts and STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, the Arts, Mathematics) activities will also be incorporated into weekly lessons.

Week 1: “Flying High” – June 10-14, 2019

- Students are assessed on their academic abilities in order to prepare an individualized learning plan.
- Students will learn about the character traits of integrity and generosity through teaching, social interaction and active participation throughout the week.
- Students will actively participate in building and creating sources used to travel across the world through flight.
- Students will explore nature’s creatures that fly and learn about their phases of life.
- Students will participate in an educational excursion to Cypress Gardens.

Week 2: “Sailing the Seven Seas” – June 17-21, 2019

- Students will learn about the character traits of loyalty and devotion through teaching, social interaction and active participation throughout the week.
- Students will explore different events of history that came across the seven seas.
- Students will work on literacy skills based on their individualized plans.
- Students will experience a celebration of freedom for the slaves through the Juneteenth holiday.
- Students will participate in STEAM activities associated with things of the sea.
- Students will participate in an educational excursion to Patriot’s Pointe.

Week 3: “Peddle to the Medal” – June 24-28, 2019

- Students will learn about the character traits of kindness and cooperation through teaching, social interaction and active participation throughout the week.
- Students will work on literacy skills based on their individualized plans.
- Students will explore avenues of transportation across land.
- Students will create components in association with transportation.
- Students will participate in an educational excursion to Children’s Museum.

Week 4: “Let’s Get Lit” – July 1-3, 2019

- Students will learn about the character traits of sincerity and self-control through teaching, social interaction and active participation throughout the week.
- Students will participate in various projects of science and engineering.
- Students will work on literacy skills based on their individualized plans.
- Students will participate in an educational excursion to Boeing.

Week 5: “Water Flossing” – July 8-12, 2019

- Students will learn about the character traits of patience and determination through teaching, social interaction and active participation throughout the week.
- Students will learn about living and non-living organisms in and around bodies of water.
- Students will work on literacy skills based on their individualized plans.
- Students will experiment with various projects involving water.
- Students will participate in an educational excursion to SC Aquarium.

Week 6: “Fantastic Fellowship” – July 15-19, 2019

- Students will learn about the character traits of persistence and grit through teaching, social interaction and active participation throughout the week.
- Students will learn to work closely with others from another camp setting.
- Students will participate with the campers of Camp D.E.A.P. (Destiny Enrichment and Academic Program)
- Students will participate in an educational excursion to Destiny Enrichment and Academic Program.

Week 7: “Around the World” – July 22-26, 2019

- Students will learn about the character traits of empathy and tolerance through teaching, social interaction and active participation throughout the week.
- Students will explore cultures and animals around the world.
- Students will work on literacy skills based on their individualized plans.
- Students will participate in an educational excursion to Museum of York County.

Week 8: “Fun in the Sun” – July 29-August 2, 2019

- Students will learn about the character traits of optimism and adventurous through teaching, social interaction and active participation throughout the week.
- Students will wind down and prepare for end of camp program.
- Students will participate in end of camp awards and recital program on July 31, 2019 at 7:00 p.m.
- Students will participate in an end of camp excursion to Wannamaker Park. Summer Camp will end with a family picnic on August 1, 2019 at 11:00 a.m.